

POLITICAL SIGNS

One political ground sign is permitted in agricultural zones but must not exceed thirty-two square feet in sign face area and four feet in height. The sign may be placed at least twenty-five feet from any property and street right-of-way line.

One political ground sign is permitted in residential zones that do not exceed ten square feet in sign face area and five feet in height. The sign may be placed twenty-five feet from your adjoining property line and at least five feet from any street right-of-way line.

It is not allowed at any time to place any sign in the road right of way, including utility poles.

Signs shall not be erected more than thirty days before an election and must be removed five days after the election.

A permit to post these signs is not required but permission should be obtained from the property owner if placed on private property.
